I am told that you have asked for a copy of the remarks that I made to the congregation at Bob's funeral. These I am happy to provide, on the assumption that in the years ahead this transcript will help you to better remember what Bob accomplished during his lifetime, rather than the pain of his passing.

Re-reading this record, I am struck anew by the inadequacy of words on such an occasion, but I am grateful to have been allowed to be the spokesman for Bob's many grieving colleagues.

With sincerest regards,

At Mrs. Randolph's request, I have made and sent to her a copy of the words that I was privileged to offer to those assembled at Bob's funeral. I enclose here a copy for you.

This is done not to increase your pain, but rather to provide something which may, in the years ahead, occasionally help you to reflect on Bob's solid achievements during his time among us.

You know, that should I or we be able to help you in any way, that you have only to ask.

With deepest sincerity,

25X1

Arthur C. Lundahl
